McAndrews Law is Excited to Welcome Michael Connolly, Esq. to Our Firm!

BERWYN, PA, April 27, 2015 - McAndrews Law Offices is excited to announce that in late April, we welcomed Michael Connolly, Esquire, to our Special Education Department. Mike is nationally-known as a premier special education and disability law attorney, and he brings a wealth of experience and background to our firm. In addition to being widely regarded as an exceptionally talented attorney who obtains excellent results for his clients, Mike is also known as being highly collegial and collaborative, with an outstanding reputation for client service while maintaining positive relationships with fellow professionals and judicial officers. Mike's skill and experience will allow him to seamlessly and immediately handle every type of complex and challenging special education case in our office, and he has already assumed full responsibility for such matters.

Most recently, Mike was a founder and named partner of a respected special education law firm in Doylestown, Pennsylvania, where he worked for seven years, exclusively representing parents in special education cases. Prior to his work in that firm, Mike served as counsel for nine years at the Sweet Stevens law firm in New Britain, Pennsylvania, practicing special education law in a variety of capacities, including as school solicitor, handling trial and appellate work, and participating in the daily management of the law firm, including hiring, supervision, and the development of firm policies and procedures. Mike is joining McAndrews Law Offices as a shareholder.
