

Free Webinar

I Think My Child Has a Learning Disability

February 10, 2021
7-8:30 PM

What is a Learning Disability and how does it impact school performance and social skills?

How is a Learning Disability diagnosed or determined?

What do I need to do to get my child evaluated for a Learning Disability?

After the evaluation, what are the next steps?

What are my rights and my child's rights under the law?

Speakers:

Fern Goldstein, LDA America's 2009 Special Educator of the Year, and LDADE President
Maureen Keeney, President, DSEA, Retired; Advocate; and LDADE Vice President
Caitlin McAndrews, noted Special Education attorney

To register for this free webinar, please email your name to ldadefern@gmail.com

(subject line: workshop)

The Learning Disabilities Association of America, is a national non-profit 501c3 volunteer organization whose mission is to create opportunities for success for all individuals affected by learning disabilities (LD) through support, education, and advocacy. Our members include individuals with LD, members of their families, and professionals who work with them. Additional information about LDA America membership is available at <https://ldaamerica.org/>.